Downers Grove Park District Museum Girl Scout Exhibit now Open

DOWNERS GROVE, Ill. – The Downers Grove Park District Museum and the Girl Scouts of Greater Chicago and Northwest Indiana opened a new exhibit to celebrate 100 years of Girl Scouts in Downers Grove. Hundreds attended the Exhibit's Grand Opening to view memorabilia in the collection and recount milestones at the Museum on Saturday, October 1 between 1:00 and 4:00 pm. Attendees enjoyed refreshments, a sing-along and craft-making during the event.

Programs related to the exhibit will be offered by the Museum this fall. Girl scouts needing to earn badges are encouraged to participate. The exhibit will be open at the Downers Grove Park District Museum, 831 Maple Avenue through January 14th, 2012. For hours and program information, please visit www.dgparks.org or call 630-963-1309.

The Downers Grove Park District is dedicated to providing a wide variety of year-round recreation programs, facilities, parks, open space and natural areas that respond to the articulated needs and desires of residents. For more information, call (630) 963-1300, or visit www.dgparks.org.
