Open Gym

Admission

There are three ways to pay during open gym times:

- Your Fitness Center annual pass includes free admission to open gyms but does not include batting cages.
- Admission to open gyms is also available by paying the daily fee.
- Downers Grove Park District residents can purchase a Play Pass card pass for badminton, basketball, pickleball and volleyball open gyms.

Paid admission allows entry into the gymnasium on for one specific open gym program and use of the locker rooms adjacent to the gym. Other areas of the Recreation Center may be used at an additional fee. Play Pass Cards can NOT be shared.

Residency Requirements

You must provide verification of residency within Downers Grove Park District boundaries to receive resident rates when you purchase passes or pay the daily Nonresidents may purchase an open gym Play Pass card at the rate of drop-in fee Without proof of residency, the non-resident rate will be charged.

Wristbands

Each participant in any open gym program will be given a wristband that must be worn during the entire open gym time. Anyone not wearing a wristband will be asked to leave the gym and will only be allowed to re-enter after payment is made.
